

Job Description for Electrical Building Services Engineer

An electrical engineer at a senior level, or an intermediate level looking to develop into a Senior Engineer.

Reporting to a Director, you will be capable of working in a team or on your own, designing electrical building services. Must have the ability to carry out detailed surveys and design switchgear, lighting, small power together with:

- Fire alarm and intruder alarm systems
- Communication Systems.
- Computer Systems and Cabling
- Control Systems
- Floodlighting Installations
- Public Address, Personnel-location and Call Services
- Radio and TV Installations
- Security System Installations
- Street Lighting
- Telephone and IT systems

Person Specification

Job:	Senior or Intermediate building services electrical engineer
Reporting to:	Director
Qualifications – Essential:	HND Building Services
Qualifications – Desirable:	Degree
Skills/Competencies	Electrical services surveys Electrical services design Electrical services troubleshooting Knowledge of Word/Excel/Cymap/Autocad/TAS/BIM Good written & verbal communication Report writing skills Understanding of contracts Understanding of contracts law Good team worker Ability to work alone Good understanding of engineering principles Ability to work in Leicester based office Ability to commute to sites anywhere in the country